

NALSC Membership Growth

by Mary Clare Garber

NALSC's membership numbers have increased by over 15% since this time last year. With total membership at an all-time high of nearly 340 total members, NALSC has 265 search firm members and 74 supporting members (law firms and providers).

The following legal search firms have joined NALSC since our last newsletter:

We have welcomed each of them on LinkedIn and have a robust protocol for making sure new members immediately feel like a valuable part of the NALSC Community. Also, as the VP of Membership, I reach out to new members, and we have an Ambassador available to the new member to answer any questions and act as a resource.

To learn more about our new search firm members, see their profiles in the Searchable NALSC Membership Directory: <https://www.nalsc.org/members/>.

Since the last Newsletter, nine law firms have joined as sponsors or supporting members:
