FEDERATE Federate Legal Inc. (Recruiter Partnerships Division)

Federate is a pioneering technology-enabled services organization dedicated to transforming the business of law by providing managed services for small to mid-sized law firms. We believe that small and mid-sized law firms deserve access to the same benefits and back-office service levels that BigLaw firms enjoy without sacrificing autonomy in the practice of law. In short, Federate enables existing law firms to attain the back-office scalability of merging with other firms but without the loss of control. And for groups of attorneys thinking about starting their own firm, Federate operates as a "law firm in a box" solution to streamline a new firm's set-up and continued operations.

Much like a typical law firm, NALSC sponsor Federate's Recruiting Partnerships Division regularly works with legal search firms regarding introductions to firms who may have operational issues, may be looking at being acquired or merging, and/or groups of attorneys looking at starting their own firm. Legal search firms have their ear to the ground at all times and know about these potential firm mergers or practice group splits before the rest of the industry. Federate is a compelling and novel solution for firms wanting to avoid the complications that come with mergers or for groups looking to start their own firm. In addition, Federate continues to work with search firms in the traditional placement of lateral attorneys at each of the firms on Federate's platform.

Firm Prospects is the first and only law firm intelligence platform designed by former top firm attorneys and legal search professionals that offers precisely targeted search results and unparalleled market intelligence.

Whether searching for candidates or tracking trends in lateral movements, your results are only as good as the underlying data. That's why we've taken the time to develop a comprehensive and accurately categorized database, while also applying the latest technology to enhance our review process. As a result, we provide more targeted market intelligence to our customers.

In addition, we not only show trends based on historical data, but also apply a proprietary predictive analytics model that allows us to look prospectively to identify associates who are most likely to make a lateral move within a 6 to 12 month period.

In the end, finding the right candidate and retaining that individual is one of the most time consuming and costly challenges businesses face. Law firms are no exception. gunnercooke

"gunnercooke is an award-winning 15-year-old UK-based disrupter firm that operates on a hybrid office, revenue share model, with over 400 lawyers in offices across the UK, Germany, CEE, Scotland, and the US.

The firm launched in the US under the leadership of Noreen Weiss as Chair, and during its first two years of US operations (2023 and 2024) it surpassed several milestones including growing to 22 partners and 2 associates admitted in 8 states practicing across a range of corporate, finance, commercial, global mobility and disputes practice areas. The US headquarters offices are in midtown Manhattan, and in February 2025 the firm opened its second US office in Chicago.

The firm trains its lawyers to approach their law practice in a business-like manner, and our culture is based upon empowering lawyers to control all aspects of their work – what they charge, how much they work, from where they work, for whom they work. We are distinguished from other firms in this segment by (i) our commitment to a robust and rich internal collaborative culture that rewards the sharing of work evidenced by the statistic that one-third of the firm's revenues are derived from internally referred clients and partners; (ii) our hybrid model, perfected over 15 years, which makes us not a virtual firm, but a firm which makes flexible working with hot-desk and multi-use offices available for its lawyers in the cities where it operates combined with a tech-driven cloud based working environment; and (iii) our transparent revenue share financial model which is the most lucrative of any other firm: Lawyers retain 70%-90% of self-serviced origination collections. Partners are free to set a referral rate for matters they refer to other partners which, after referral bonuses paid by the firm, can yield more than 36% on a partner's book serviced by others. Partners retain over 53% of collections for servicing other partners' clients (dependent upon the agreed referral fee, at 20% the yield is 56%).

"With 315 lawyers and growing, we serve sophisticated clients of all sizes and in virtually all industries from our offices in Chicago, New York, Washington, DC, London, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Singapore, Dallas and Miami.

You can expect practical, responsive, results-oriented, cost-effective service, delivered by a firm with a world-class reputation in key practice areas.

Personalized service. We treat every client and every matter with uncompromising dedication and personal attention. When you work with Vedder Price, you get the resources and diverse experience of a large firm coupled with the loyalty, commitment and personal attention of a trusted friend and partner.

Distinctive credentials, enduring relationships. We measure our success by the success of our clients, which comprise a "who's who" of world-class organizations. We are selective in the clients we represent and the matters we undertake. Many of our clients have been our clients for decades—not only because they receive high-quality and devoted service, but because they trust us with their most important legal matters.

Competitive rates, with a particular focus on efficiency. We offer competitive rates for superior legal work, deep experience, and personalized client service and attention. We believe the key variables in the billing calculus are results and efficiency. We work with our clients on market fee structures that provide a "win-win" in terms of value and effectiveness.

Strong professional relations. We believe that establishing cordial and professional relations with opposing counsel is not only a professional requirement but also a strategic advantage. They know we are formidable opponents who zealously and effectively represent our clients without engaging in expensive and acrimonious tactics. Time and time again we have seen our relationships with opposing counsel translate into benefits for our clients.

Sound leadership and long-term stability. We maintain a transparent, democratic leadership and governance structure that supports our focus on delivering responsive, results-oriented and cost-effective client services. Our open approach to management and compensation, combined with prudent financial management, has produced long-term stability. Many of our shareholders have spent their entire careers at the firm.
